

MOUNTAINEER WORD PLAY

THE BIG GAME

The Mountaineer football team was down by a touchdown with _____ NUMBER
seconds left in the game.

The starting quarterback _____
NAME OF RELATIVE
was carried off the field on a _____ NOUN with a _____ PART OF BODY
injury. Head Coach Neal _____ COLOR sent

PERSON FILLING THIS OUT
into the game as the substitution.

PERSON FILLING THIS OUT
had never seen any playing time up until now. The regular backup quarterback, _____,
NAME OF A FRIEND
was out with food poisoning after eating

FOOD
from _____.
NAME OF A RESTAURANT

But the coach was hopeful that _____ PERSON FILLING THIS OUT
could pull the team to victory.

The Mountaineers went to the line of scrimmage at the _____ NUMBER yard line.

PERSON FILLING THIS OUT
shouted “ _____
COLOR
FORTY-TWO! _____
NOUN
HIKE!” prompting the center to snap the ball.

PERSON FILLING THIS OUT

VERB ENDING IN -ED
and _____
VERB ENDING IN -ED
in the pocket until they spotted open wide receiver Andre _____
SILLY NICKNAME
Sparklewitz. The quarterback hurled the football to Sparklewitz who caught the ball with one _____.
PART OF BODY

Mountaineer Field erupted in _____ EMOTION
but WVU still had to go for a

NUMBER
– point conversion for the victory.

That’s when their dependable, burly fullback Willie “ _____
SILLY NICKNAME
” _____
LAST NAME
pulled through, plowing through a defensive line of _____ PLURAL NOUN
to score the win.